NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS: No more than 10 entries allowed per envelope. No online entries will be accepted. Express mail entries must waive the signature requirement or they will be refused. Exhibitors are responsible for complete, accurate and legible information on their entry forms. Trial secretary assumes no responsibility for incorrect entry information due to illegibility of the entry. All or incomplete forms will be returned. Entries will not be accepted without proper fees and signatures. Entries must be submitted on entry forms with the AKC agreement printed on the reverse side. Any entry not compliant with the above will be returned! Do not staple height cards, checks, and or entry forms together!

Notification of entry status will be emailed to all exhibitors providing an email address. Trial secretary is not responsible for emails returned due to illegible email addresses, full mailboxes, spam blockers or any other event causing email to be returned or missed, and no further effort will be made. Any exhibitor requiring to know their entry status before final confirmations are sent should send a SASE or postcard to be returned with that information. No other notification of entry status will be made. Final entry confirmations and judging schedules will be sent after the final closing date to all exhibitors, as per Chapter1, Section18 of the Regulations for Agility Trials. Exhibitors providing an email address will be emailed their confirmations, exhibitors with no email address or exhibitors whose email addresses were rejected will be sent their confirmation via the US Postal Service.

Full refunds after the closing date will be allowed for bitches in season and partial refunds will be allowed for injured dogs. Request for refund must be made in writing, before judging begins, and accompanied by notice from a veterinarian. Entry fees will not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, excused, disqualified or barred from the competition by action of the Show Committee. No entry fees will be refunded if the trial cannot open or be completed by reason of riots, civil disturbances, fire, act of God, public emergency, act of a public enemy, or any other cause beyond control of the organizing committee.

It is expressly understood that exhibitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs and/or children. Any exhibitor whose dogs and/or children create unnecessary disturbances or repeatedly engage in unsafe or disruptive behavior may, at the discretion of the Show Committee, be asked to leave the show site. Unsportsmanlike conduct, including rough handling or misconduct of any kind, may result in the exhibitor being brought before a Trial Committee. In such cases, no refund of any fees paid will be made.

Dogs are not required to be at the trial until the scheduled time of judging. All dogs not needed for further judging are excused. The owner/handler is solely responsible for having the dog ready at ringside when the class is to be judged. Conflicts between rings should be discussed with the judge prior to the start of the class and the gate steward notified.

Exhibitors should follow their veterinarians' recommendation to assure their dogs are free of internal and external parasites, any communicable diseases, and have appropriate vaccinations. Exhibitors and spectators are expected to keep the show grounds clean. Please pick up after your dogs and yourselves.

This club does not agree to arbitrate claims as set forth on the official AKC entry form for this event.
