Dated 8 Nov 1860, Anianias wrote his Last Will and Testament.
"As I have given to all my children all that I have for them," Anianias bequeathed the house and remaining land to his wife Sarah. Co-executors were Sarah and the Reverend Edmond L. Davis.
"Nias"
Co-executors: Sarah & Rev. Edmond L. Davis

His will was dated 8 Nov 1860 & filed in Will Book I, pg. 200.
200, AR, Co. 097-Union Co.

"Annianias Thomas and Sarah Ross Thomas are buried at Edmund Davis Cemetery "Davis Grove" on a knoll near the banks of Gourdvine Creek near Olive Branch, NC.

Their headstones (field) with scratched information are a few of the ones that are still there. I copied them a few years ago. When I was there in the late 40's for a burying, it was a large place just full of field stones. It has a cyclone fence around it, but it is in a pasture."

Note: The foregoing was written in a letter to me from Ms. Annie Lee Traywick of Peachland, NC.

Dated 5 Apr 1821, he purchased the same 250-acre grant (T-191, Anson) from his father. Situated on the South Side of Richardson's Creek, this land adjoined that of his father and Michael Austin.

lived in the section of Anson County that became part of Union County in 1842. The county's first tax records lists Anianias as owning 299 acres. On the 1844 Union County tax list, someone unofficially wrote the maiden names of the Thomas spouses. The name of Sarah Ross was written beside that of Anianias Thomas. From the appearance of the writing, this was likely done in more modern times and should not be considered as proof.

It was proven in open court, Apr. term, 1862.

3m5-, 1m5-10, 1m10-15, 2m15-20, 1m50-60 / 1f5-10, 1f40-50

On 24 Dec 1838, Anianias received a grant for thirty acres situated on the South Side of Richardson's Creek that adjoined William Gurley's land. Sons John R. and Ebenezer Thomas were listed as chain bearers on the survey.

Marriage Notes for ANNANIAS THOMAS and SARAH ROSS:

Ananias Thomas would have married Sarah Ross prior to the 1808 birth of their firstborn. I have yet to find further verification as to ancestry of Sarah Thomas.

As the children of Ananias married and began settling down, death took its toll on those who lived near Richardsons's Creek. The likely cause was typhoid fever and other diseases that were prevalent during this time. Beginning with the death of son David in 1854, four of the sons of Ananias would die before 1861. In 1862, another son died from disease while serving in the Civil War.

Children of ANNANIAS THOMAS and SARAH ROSS are:

Look for a large well-kept field at the top of the picture with a row of trees looking like a line and 2 individual trees. Then look to the right of that field and see a not as well kept field. Annis Thomas lived in a house that used to be in the lower right field. All that is left in 2001 is a punch well pipe sticking out of the ground at the lower end of the field. Nearby on a hillside is a small family cemetery with 6 graves. It is believed that John R. Thomas is buried there.

Writing his Last Will and Testament on 2 Sep 1857, John R. Thomas appointed brother Annanias Thomas, Jr. as executor. John bequeathed to his wife, all personal property and "one hundred and eighty-one acres of land where I now live".

Before settlement of the estate, Annanias, Jr. died 21 Feb 1858.

C. B. Curlee was named the new administrator. Dated 17 Jun 1858, an appointed committee laid-off a sixty acre Dower Right for Annis Thomas. The land (5-384, Union) adjoined that of Jesse Coley and Enoch Smith.

Last Will and Testament: "In the name of god amen I John R. Thomas of the County of Union and state of North Carolina being of sound mind and Memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

Dated 17 Oct 1853, John R. Thomas sold two tracts of land (19-48,49, Union) to his brother Jacob. Containing 187 acres, the land was situated on the Little Watery Branch and adjoined that of David Gurley, Jacob Gurley, and the 1812 John Beasley grant of 300 acres. Witnesses to the transaction were brothers Annanias and Benjamin Thomas.

My mother told me that John Robert Thomas was taken forceably away from his home and off his land to go to fight in the Civil War while he was out on his farm working. He was not even allowed to go back home and say Good-Bye to his wife Annis and family. They never saw him again after that.

"John R. left an estate settlement. There were several that died in the late 1850's.. As a matter of fact, John was Exe. of several who died and then he himself died. It is my belief that John R. Thomas died of Typhoid or one of the other diseases that swept though the region.

I have testimony from a supreme court case in which John R. testifies. Also, did you know that the estate of John R. Thomas made it all the way to the Supreme Court? It seems that the estate did not have much to offer the Administator and so he took physical properties for his fee. Annis protested and the her case appears in the gold bound printing of the Supreme Court. Her testimony is on hand at NC archives.. really cool old stuff...."

Notes for ANNIS ADELINE NANCE:

On 10 Sep 1873, Annis purchased 182 acres (18-48, Union) from D. M. Smith, administrator of the estate of Harbert Nance, deceased. Beginning with the same surveyor's starting point, this land adjoined a line as laid down in the 1835 gift deed from Benjamin Thomas, Jr. to son Jacob Thomas. Situated on the Rocky River, the land further abutted that of Evan Smith and Jesse Coley. Now known as "The old Annis Thomas Place", the Whitley family presently owns part of this land that is located east of Pleasant Hill Church Road. In a clearing deep in the woods, a well pipe is all that remains of the old home.

Just below the home sight, a very old cemetery with about six unmarked stones holds the memories of those that once lived upon this land. I spoke to Ms. Emma Austin, who lived in the house as a little girl. Telling me of her childhood memory of the cemetery, she remembered seeing writing on the stones. Ms. Austin had no recollection of what names were once engraved upon them. Was there a connection between this land and the above 182-acre Harbert Nance estate and the 181 acres listed in the John R. Thomas Will?

Moving to Concord, Annis lived with her son Clement M. Thomas. As directed by the 31 Mar 1868 Will of John A. Nance, his executor Alfred H. Nance sold remaining lands (18-432, Union) at public auction. Being the highest bidder, on 9 Feb 1877, Annis Thomas purchased 89 acres. Dated 19 Jan 1886, she sold 45 acres of the tract (22-199, Union) to her son Harbert Thomas.

On 13 Feb 1896, she sold the other half, 44 acres (38-791, Union), to her son John Calvin Thomas. The land adjoined that of A. H. Griffin, W. R. Nance, R. H. Hinson, and Emeline Nance.

Thomas Allen Austin was one of those Men from North Carolina who marched, ragged, weary, and desolate among other decimated troops at the surrender of the Confederary, when General Robert E. Lee handed his sword over to General Ulysses S. Grant. On April 9, 1865, at Appamattox Courthouse, VA, the South gave her last gasp and supposedly died. But believe me, she is still very much alive in the hearts and spirits of true Southerners: Those whose families lived here prior to 1865.

There is a place at Appamattox, where the troops from North Carolina were encamped that April in '65. You get out of your car, walk down a long path about 300 feet into the woods, to a monument to our men. It is quiet there, with only the shimmer of sunlight drifting through a canopy of leaves, a slight breeze caresses your face, and a sighing comes through the boughs, almost unheard, but there, nevertheless. My daughter, Melinda, and I were standing, listening, when she whispered to me, "Mother, did you hear that man walking behind us?" I did not, I must confess, but I had had a strange feeling as I read the words on that monument, tears streaming from my eyes; cold electricity ran over my body, as I wept. My daughter was sure someone was there, and perhaps there was, for the spirit will linger in a place of pain.

Notes for IVA FETNA THOMAS:

Listed in Davidson Nance, Nance=The History and Genealogy of the Nances, Record Number:, Marshville, North Carolina, May 1, 1930, p. 45, 47.

There was no birth certificate. Her birth date was only known as her personal knowledge of her birthday. She was told this story to be able to tell how old she was. In 1899, her daddy took out an insurance policy out on her, telling the insurance agent that she would be two on her next birthday - May 2. This took place in 1899 and counting back 2 years would be 1897. She was born in Gaston County on or near Tuckaseegee Road. Clem Marshall, her daddy, would have been 50 years old when Iva was born. Catherine, her mother, would have been about 48 years old when she was born. She was the youngest of eleven children.

My grandmother lived to be 98 and 1/2 years and died in 1995. I knew her very well.

Read Bible, crochet afghans, crossword & picture puzzles

She loved to crochet afghans in the ziz zag pattern in many color combinations and did many of these afghans, giving them to many different people, even way up into her nineties, the last of them probably no more than a year before she died at age 98 and a half years old.

also known as "Ivy", "Mama Smith"

Her grandchildren and even other people called her "Mama Smith".

Funeral Service: James 4:8; Psalm 23; Amazing Grace; When We All Get To Heaven

She then went to the hospital in Concord, where medical tests showed she probably had liver cancer. She was too old to be operated on or to receive chemo-therapy, being at that time 98 years old. She went to Brian Center in Mooresville, North Carolina, where she died 4 months later on Dec. 30, 1995.

Mrs. Iva Fisher

CONCORD - Iva Thomas Smith Fisher, 98, formally of Georgia Street, Concord, died Saturday, Dec. 30, 1995, at the Brian Center in Mooresville.

Services will be at 2 p.m. today at Wilkinson Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be at Oakwood Cemetery. The Rev. Fenton Jones will officiate. The family will receive friends from 1 to 2 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Born May 2, 1897, in Gaston County, she was the daughter of the late Clem Marshall and Mary Catherine Hinson Thomas. She was a member of Ann Street United Methodist Church and a lifelong resident of Concord.

Her first husband was the late Arthur Smith. Her second husband was the late Dr. W. R. Fisher.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Olena Smith Ham of Mooresville; 11 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

She also played the piano just a little bit, just enough for a few hymns that she would play.

I remember her playing probably her favorite hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus".

Notes for ARTHUR LEE SMITH:

Listed in Davidson Nance, Nance=The History and Genealogy of the Nances, Record Number:, Marshville, North Carolina, May 1, 1930, p. 45, 47.

My granddaddy Smith died when I was only 2 years old, so I never really knew him. He was only about 52 when he died from a sudden heart attack.

He and his brothers had a barber-shop quartet and he sang the lead tenor part.

My mother said that my granddaddy Smith really knew about rhythm and counting and was really good at it.

At all the parties and gatherings, he would sing the "Laughin' Song".

Alphalfa sang this same song on one of the Little Rascals movies. They would go to Charlotte and have recordings made of their singing. His daughters Olena and Helen did a recording of the song "I wish that I could hear my mother pray again". I don't know the title, or who wrote it, but that's how the lyrics start out.

Notes for OLENA SMITH:

her full given name. She went by her middle name all her life.

Now I wish that I had kept dresses my mother had made. She was always sewing and made beautiful dresses and all kinds of clothes for me and everybody in the family. Mom would see a dress in a store window and come home and make a dress that looked just like the one in the store. She didnt even have to have a pattern to go by. Im still amazed just to think about it. At least I have all the afghans and hook-latch rugs that she and my grandmother made for me. They are beautiful. She died of congestive heart failure. My mom passed away peacefully on Thursday morning at 9:50 AM, July 14, 2005. I was very blessed to be sitting right beside her bed holding her hand when she passed. After being bedridden since February, 2005 and about 20 hours of my mom being in a coma-type sleep, she opened up her eyes and I said "Good morning, Mother. Im not on the phone today. Im right here." She smiled. By that time, my dad was right there. It seemed like she was mouthing the words, "I love you" and then she passed away. It was a strange thing that was about the time I had been calling her about every day for the past year. At that exact same time, my cousin got a sudden urge to go pray, and without knowing why, she did. Also at the same time, a friend of mine and my daughter were on the phone, agreeing about the need for prayer at that particular time. I was able to experience quite a few miracles from God this past week. One of them was that within about 10 minutes after her death the sores on her feet were beginning to look like brand new baby feet after so long of being so bad. I would not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes the extreme difference in her feet. It was amazing!!! I am so sad, but now I know Mother is at peace, healed, and finally able to walk, and she is with Jesus! Although I will miss her for the rest of my life, by the grace of God, I was much stronger, calm, and peaceful, than I thought I would be through all this. Even so, I was shocked when my dad called me the "Rock" probably because of your prayers. On Saturday both the funeral and graveside service were very beautiful. Sunday morning the immediate family met at the gravesite and joined hands in a circle for prayer before me and my husband and my childrens families came back to Virginia.

"Beyond the Sunset" was played on the piano as the recessional music.

Interment was afterward at the Glenwood Memorial Park in Mooresville.

After that the family and invited friends went to First Baptist Church for a luncheon provided by the church.

Pallbearers: (I'm sorry if I've left anyone out)

Seth Smith (husband of her granddaughter, Emily Smithdeal Smith)
Donnie Perry (her son-in-law)
Bruce DeCaron (son of Nancy, her neice)
David DeCaron (son of Nancy, her neice)

Medical Information: Heart Attack, Stints in arteries, high blood pressure, low-grade diabetes, congestive heart failure, arthritis, one leg bent out at the knee, poor circulation in her legs, had to have the middle toe removed on both feet because of sores on her feet that wouldn't heal because of poor circulation. At the end all of her organs were shutting down and her congestive heart failure was so bad that she couldn't even swallow water very well. She had to have water given to her by a medicine dropper. She couldn't have any food of any kind because she would have choked to death on it and we were told that that would be a horrible death. As it was she passed away peacefully after a long coma-like sleep. She opened her eyes up at the very last. I was sitting beside her bed holding her hand. I said, "Good morning, Mother"; After that she smiled and she was gone.

Marriage Notes for CYNTHIA HAM and CHARLES SMITHDEAL:

They got married during the mid-winter semester break from college and had just finished exams from the first semester. She wore her evening gown that she had worn to the High School Junior-Senior Prom and her Senior Piano Recital. Her mother sewed long lace sleeves to the dress, matching the lace as well as possible, to give it more of an appearance of a wedding gown than a sleeveless prom dress. It was made of podisua satin with an wide fitted satin waist and large pleats in the floor length skirt. Above the wide empire waist was an attached lace over bodice.

It snowed the day they got married, about 4-5 inches. Some of the wedding party and other guests were not able to come that day because of the weather. They borrowed his dad's car, because neither had a car of their own. After the wedding at the First Baptist Church in Mooresville, North Carolina, they first went to his sister's (Aileen) house to change clothes. Then they drove to Statesville, North Carolina to their 2 room garage apartment, that they lived in for the next couple months until he graduated from Mitchell College. When they arrived at the apartment, all the lights were out. The landlord, who lived in the main house came over with candles and talked and talked for hours. He finally left about two o'clock that night. You could see the sky where the roof didn't quite meet the walls and some tiles were missing in the bathroom to reveal a "dirt" floor.

He worked at Harris Teeter Super Market part-time. She worked at a drug store as a soda jerk for a couple months, then went to work at Beaunit as a quality control inspector until he got a job with Woolworths and was transferred to Gastonia, North Carolina. That first summer after they married, they went to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina for a couple of days and stayed at the Cottonwood Motel. That was really their first real honeymoon.

Marriage Notes for EMILY SMITHDEAL and SETH SMITH:

Ref #1134; Emily's mother made the bridal gown of satin and venetian lace appliques and also made the bridal veil of two layers of the finest tulle with zigzag edging. The headpiece was made by overlaying a headband with matching satin and matching pieces of the venetian lace used on the dress with adding pearls and tiny ribbon. The tulle was tightly gathered and attached to the back of the headpiece. Her mother also made Aunt Julia's bridesmaid dress, and her mother of the bride dress. The bridesmaid's dresses and her mother's skirt was of an apricot colored polyester satin. Her grandmother, Olena Ham, made the flower-girl dress for her cousin, Jenny Perry. The wedding cake came from Ukrop's. Caston's photographed the wedding. Her mother organized and planned the reception after the wedding at the church. Ladies at the church helped serve and clean-up afterwards. After her mother carefully making a notebook of do-not-forget lists, the one thing that was forgotten was her mother's mother of the bride dress. Her daddy had to drive back home to get it about just an hour before the wedding.

Guests from North Carolina on the brides side included:

Grandparents: Leonard & Olena Ham, and Rachel Smithdeal
Aunts & Uncles: Julia Perry, Aileen Waugh, Barbara & Pressley

Barnett

Cousins: Jenny Perry

Great Aunt (Granddaddy Leonard Ham's sister): Daisy Azars

After the wedding, supper for the Smithdeal's out of town guests and family was barbeque from Brock's Barbeque with all the fixings from Brock's at the home of the Smithdeals. The Smith family provided dinner for their out of town guests and family at their home.

The couple was given from the bride's parents as a wedding present, a night at the Brandermill Inn with Breakfast in the room. So, that's where they spent their honeymoon night. It was a very pretty, nice place overlooking the Swift Creek Reservoir between Brandermill and Woodlake in Midlothian, Virginia.
