Generation No. 1

1. JOHN EXUM² SMITH (*JAMES*¹)^{1,2,3,4,5} was born September 03, 1823 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina^{6,7}, and died September 08, 1900 in Aged 77 years & 5 days, New Salem Township, Union County, North Carolina^{7,8,9,10}. He married (1) NANCY LILLY AUSTIN^{11,12,13} September 03, 1844 in New Salem Township, Union County, North Carolina^{14,15,16,17,18}, daughter of BRYANT AUSTIN and TEMPERANCE WILLIAMS. She was born Abt. 1823, and died Aft. July 12, 1855 in New Salem Township, Union County, North Carolina. He married (2) LEAH TUCKER^{19,20,21,22} March 28, 1860 in New Salem Township, Union County, North Carolina^{23,24,25,26}, daughter of JOSEPH TUCKER and MARY PECK. She was born Abt. 1808 in 15 years older than John Exum Smith^{27,28}, and died Bet. 1857 - 1912 in New Salem Township, Union County, North Carolina²⁸.

Notes for JOHN EXUM SMITH:

1900 Sep 8 - JES died, Union Co. NC.

He is buried in Cullen Braswell family cemetery. His wife Leah Tucker Dry Smith is supposed to be buried beside him in an unmarked grave. His 1st wife is probably buried somewhere else.

Cullen Braswell family cemetery is at the junction of 205 between two old store buildings next to the building on the right, near the corner of Brewer's Store; A grave marker there lists: John E. Smith - C D F - 35 N C Inf. C. S. A. 1st Private, Company F, "Redwine Beauregards" 35th Regiment - N. C. Troops - Enlisted Union County, N. C. on October 4, 1861.; confederate soldier in the Civil War, a courier during the war; Head of Household..Farmer, Could read and write; Buried in the little fenced in cemetery to the left of Mount Moriah Methodist Church at the 5 point crossroad at New Salem.

Since the Post Office was given as Morgan Mill, the sites of these two home would have been on the "other" side of Euto or New Salem from Pleasant Hill Church. If you come into New Salem on highway 205, you would turn left or north between the two old store buildings and these two home sites would be between that point and Rocky River. When you go between the two old store buildings, a small enclosed cemetery will be on your right next to the building on the right. John E. Smith is buried in that small cemetery. "

To the Clerk of the Superior Court of Union County, the plaintiff in the

The wording of the 10 May 1902 (signed by J.C. Sikes) and 11 May 1902 (signed by E.A. Armfield) documents appears to indicate all of the Bryant children as minors, however, that might be poor wording and sentence formation. All of them were not minors because of their ages at the time. Notice that the wording indicates Jane Bryant and Bertha Bryant last followed by the words "infant defendants." The intention of these documents may have been to indicate only those two as minors.

Note of explanation from Richard Crotwell, July 11, 2001

The law requires that orphaned minor children who have an estate, be appointed a guardian to act for them. This guardian was appointed for the estate settlement only (ad litem). I think the age of majority was 21 at the time, so, you only see Jane and Bertha Bryant listed in the guardian's answer (hand written document of 13 March 1902) to the petition to sell land. Their names have a handwritten "x" mark over them in the 11 March 1902 document which you can see when you receive the copies I sent on Monday.

The cemetery is located on the left about as far down the road as you can go. It is on a little rise in the middle of a planted field. It is in good condition. For some reason this surprised me. When we first

Marriage Notes for JOHN SMITH and NANCY AUSTIN:

1844 Sep 3 - JES no longer a bound boy. Starts buying land, marries Nancy Lilly Austin.

1845-1855 - JES & Nancy have 6 children.

John Exum Smith's first wife was Nancy Lilly Austin, daughter of Bryant Austin Esq. and Temperance Williams. I have not seen a marriage record supporting this marriage, but researchers of the Austin, Nance and Smith families show it. The following legal record from lateral files, Stanly Co. NC library indicates that John Exum Smith's wife was an Austin: "1852 Feb. 23, John Exum Smith released all rights, title, trust and interest to the estate which he was entitled to in the estate of Bryant Austin due at the right of his wife to Jacob Austin to who he was duely indebted."

Genealogy of the Austin Family of Stanly and Union Counties (which was in the Stanly News and Herrald June 4, 1929) This gives a family history of Bryant Austin I and Bryant II and lists his children and who they married. It says daughter Nancy Lilly married John Exum Smith, parents of Calvin, J.

Marriage Notes for JOHN SMITH and LEAH TUCKER:

1860 Mar 28 - JES married Leah Tucker

"Laura had her last baby, Tempary Dry, about 1855 at age 44 or 45. Your gr gr grandmother Nancy ? (wife's maiden name were never shown) had her last child, George W. about 1856, at age 30. She probably died in 1858 or 1859, leaving your gr gr grandfather John E. in a tough economic situation with young children. He solved the problem by marrying the older widow next door."-Jimmie L. Smith

"After the death of Nancy Lilly Austin Smith which occured between July 1855 and 1860, Exum Smith married Leah Tucker Dry, widow of Charles Dry.

As you can see by the birth dates, Exum's children were small. Leah's children were also small. No doubt Leah had a trying time taking care of so many small children. One Smith daughter was named Temperence. One of the Dry daughters was also named Temperence. Temperence Smith was older and larger than Temperence Dry. Temperence Smith was called "Big Tempie" and Temperence Dry was called "Little Tempie". Leah Tucker Dry Smith had this large double family to take care of while Exum Smith was away serving in the Confederate Army." - Priscilla

John Exum Smith
Leah Smith
George Smith (This is the year that he married.)

I figure that by this time Leah is getting pretty old and could have been in bad health. She probably needed help with the chores and Adeline and her son were staying with them to help out.

Note by Priscilla Clark: "Notice the difference in the ages of John E., and his wife Laura, and the fact that they were married within the year. This tells me that they are a "blended" family, both probably having lost their spouse in the previous 12 months.

Where is Temperance C. Dry, dau. of Leah and Charles Dry?"

Note by Jimmie Smith: "Notice that in 1860, both John E. and Laura "fudged" their ages with John E. increasing his age and Laura decreasing hers. I have seen this many times before. Your William Jasper was really 8 years old in 1860, and since the census was taken on September 27, 1860, he was almost 8 and one half. Notice that the older Dry children probably stayed with their older brother and sister, as both were probably married by the time their mother remarried."

They were next stopped at Bush Hill in Randolph County half way between Trinity College and High Point, NC. Here they fell in ranks for the last time 2 May 1865, disbanded and returned home.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER

J. Stanley Smith was enlisted by Colonel Mallett on either 10 or 18 August 1864 at at Camp Holmes near Raleigh, NC and served with the North Carolina Junior Reserves, Company "F" 71st Regiment also known as the Second Junior Reserves. His name appeared on the Company F Muster Roll of 31 August 1864 and on a list of a Confederate Soldiers reunion in Monroe, NC 4 July 1903. He apparently served until 2 May 1865 when the unit disbanded. According to Mary Jane Ledbetter (my mother) he and Daniel Dry, with Ethyl Jane Ledbetter as their sponsor, attended a Confederate Veterans Reunion in New Orleans, LA about 1920.

This Regiment's organization began about 31 May 1864 at Camp Holmes near Raleigh, NC. It was then ordered to Goldsboro on 2 June 1864 where Captain T.C. Rowland's company was added on 15 June 1864. They next went to Weldon, NC where organization was completed 7 December 1864. On 8 December 1864 it was ordered to Belfield, VA where they repelled Warrens' Corps. They were sent next to Coleraine (Colerain), on the Chowan River to meet an expected enemy advance which did not occur. They were next ordered to Goldsboro, thence to about 4 or 5 miles south of Kinston along South West Creek at Wise's Forks where they drove back an enemy advance from New Bern (Battle of South West Creek) on 8 March 1865. About 11 March 1865 they marched through Kinston and Goldsboro on to Smithfield where they joined up with General Joseph E. Johnston's Army. On the night of 18 March 1865 they encamped just beyond Bentonville and the next day were involved in the Bentonville Battle where they fought for three days and retired to Mitchener's depot.

Johnston's army retreated on 10 April 1865 and passed through Raleigh 12 April and encamped about 12 miles west of the city.

BOOKS

Mary Jane Ledbetter has given me (W. Richard Crotwell) the following books that belonged to John Stanley Smith.

Social Etiquette or Manners and Customs of Polite Society, by Maude C. Cooke. The publishers name is not indicated, however one page contains the following " Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1896 by J. R. Jones, In the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D.C. All Rights Reserved." Mother Mary tells me (W. Richard Crotwell) he bought this book so he would know proper and correct polite proceedings and manners at events such as weddings. Since he was a Justice of The Peace he often was responsible such occasions and desired to see they were correctly administered. The table of contents indicates the following subjects; Miscellaneous Entertainments; Christenings, Confirmations And Graduations; Etiquette of Funerals And Mourning; Etiquette of Public Places; Walking, Riding Boating Driving; Bicycle Etiquette; Club Etiquette; Society; General Etiquette; Washington Etiquette; Delsartean Discipline; Art of Dress; Colors And Complexions; Dress For Special Occasions; Letter Writing; Forms For Letters; Artistic Home Decorations; and How To Be Beautiful. The book has 506 pages. The cover is blue and gray and includes a picture of ladies and gentlemen in formal dress. One Lady sits on a piano stool and is playing a piano. Two men in tuxedos stand next to the piano and one appears to holds a book of sheet music. Judging from the book's condition it has been used a lot.

BIBLE: He wrote birth, marriage, and death information in what I call the John Stanley Smith family bible. It includes some of the Austin family.

From the J. Stanley Smith Bible:

Great Grand Father Bryant Austin and Some of his Family.

Grand Father Bryant Austin.

Grand Uncle Jacob Austin.

Grand Uncle Jonathan Austin.

Grand Aunt Alcy(?) Austin.

Grand Aunt Sallie Austin.

Grand Aunt Rebecca Austin.

Unfortunately, even though the Austin contemporaries and cousins of Jane have their children listed, none are shown on her and J. Stanley Smith.

This leads me to think that they may have migrated since I found no reference to Jasper Stanley in 1850,60, or 70 censuses. Do you think that they may have migrated to Tenn.or another state. I have some evidence that Deberry's sister went to Tenn. Could William Jasper have had another name? We should be able to find him in the census unless he was just missed?

Marriage Notes for WILLIAM SMITH and SARAH TUCKER:

Look at this marriage record from Stanly Co. Book 2, page 26. Smith, William J. (21) son of John E. & Sayer Smith wed Sayer C. Tucker (18) dau. of John O. & Mary Ann Tucker, on 13 Apr. 1873, John Burriss. JP.

I have not heard of the name "Sayer" before and wonder why it appears twice in this record. Could be a typo or hard to read original record.

The letter "C" in the brides name could represent "Catharine." Age of the groom fits Wm. Jasper and the John E. fits his father - John Exum Smith.

The 1873 marriage date fits as dau. Hester A. Smith was born abt 1874 (based on 1880 census info).

John O. Tucker (wife Mary A.) may be the son of Duncan and Catharine Tucker of Stanly Co.

Apparently, on the marriage record, some one wrote Leah C. Tucker as Sayer C. Tucker and Leah Smith as Sayer Smith.

So, seems highly probable that Wm. Jasper Smith's first wife was Leah Catharine Tucker. (John Burriss, Justice of the Peace)

Notes for GEORGE WEBSTER SMITH:

Stanly Funeral Home, Albemarle, N.C. His doctor was listed as E. P. Bunn, Albemarle, N. C. He died of Chronic Myocarditis and Chronic Nephritis (is this T.B.?).

I had always heard that George Smith died from T.B.

"My Great Grandfather George W. Smith is buried at Philadelphia Baptist Church between his two wives, Lydia Brooks Smith (my g grandmother) and Betty Brooks Smith. Lydia and Betty were sisters. When Lydia died, George married here sister Betty, who was one year older than Lydia. I told you that my Grandpa Web lost his farm during the depression. George had raised a large family and buried two wives, so he must have contacted T.B. at a later stage in his life. Uncle Buford said everyone was deathly afraid of T.B. and no one wanted to take him in even though he was sick. Grandpa Web borrowed money and built a special room on to their house for him so he could have his own set of dishes. George gave Web his farm. There was a farm between Web's farm and George's farm and George had an opportunity to buy it, too. He borrowed money to purchase it, too. Daddy said that they had a bumper crop that year but the stock market crashed and because money was scarce they couldn't get very much money for their goods and they were unable to repay their loan so they lost the farm. This happened when my Dad was a teenager. They moved from Stanfield to Oakboro and share cropped for a while. They then moved to Charlotte.

Daddy loved that farm. It really hurt him to see it go.

My granddaddy Smith died when I was only 2 years old, so I never really knew him. He was only about 52 when he died from a sudden heart attack. He and his brothers had a barber-shop quartet and he sang the lead tenor part.

My mother said that my granddaddy Smith really knew about rhythm and counting and was really good at it.

At all the parties and gatherings, he would sing the "Laughin' Song". Alphalfa sang this same song on one of the Little Rascals movies. They would go to Charlotte and have recordings made of their singing. His daughters Olena and Helen did a recording of the song "I wish that I could hear my mother pray again". I don't know the title, or who wrote it, but that's how the lyrics start out.

There was no birth certificate. Her birth date was only known as her personal knowledge of her birthday. She was told this story to be able to tell how old she was. In 1899, her daddy took out an insurance policy out on her, telling the insurance agent that she would be two on her next birthday - May 2. This took place in 1899 and counting back 2 years would be 1897. She was born in Gaston County on or near Tuckaseegee Road. Clem Marshall, her daddy, would have been 50 years old when Iva was born. Catherine, her mother, would have been about 48 years old when she was born. She was the youngest of eleven children.

My grandmother lived to be 98 and 1/2 years and died in 1995. I knew her very well.

Read Bible, crochet afghans, crossword & picture puzzles

She loved to crochet afghans in the ziz zag pattern in many color combinations and did many of these afghans, giving them to many different people, even way up into her nineties, the last of them probably no more than a year before she died at age 98 and a half years old.

also known as "Ivy", "Mama Smith"

Her grandchildren and even other people called her "Mama Smith".

Funeral Service: James 4:8; Psalm 23; Amazing Grace; When We All Get To Heaven

She then went to the hospital in Concord, where medical tests showed she probably had liver cancer. She was too old to be operated on or to receive chemo-therapy, being at that time 98 years old. She went to Brian Center in Mooresville, North Carolina, where she died 4 months later on Dec. 30, 1995.

He was born September 12, 1920 in Mooresville, Iredell County, North Carolina⁴⁹⁴.

Notes for OLENA SMITH:

her full given name. She went by her middle name all her life.

Now I wish that I had kept dresses my mother had made. She was always sewing and made beautiful dresses and all kinds of clothes for me and everybody in the family. Mom would see a dress in a store window and come home and make a dress that looked just like the one in the store. She didnt even have to have a pattern to go by. Im still amazed just to think about it. At least I have all the afghans and hook-latch rugs that she and my grandmother made for me. They are beautiful.

She died of congestive heart failure. My mom passed away peacefully on Thursday morning at 9:50 AM, July 14, 2005. I was very blessed to be sitting right beside her bed holding her hand when she passed. After being bedridden since February, 2005 and about 20 hours of my mom being in a coma-type sleep, she opened up her eyes and I said "Good morning, Mother. Im not on the phone today. Im right here." She smiled. By that time, my dad was right there. It seemed like she was mouthing the words, "I love you" and then she passed away. It was a strange thing that was about the time I had been calling her about every day for the past year.

At that exact same time, my cousin got a sudden urge to go pray, and without knowing why, she did. Also at the same time, a friend of mine and my daughter were on the phone, agreeing about the need for prayer at that particular time. I was able to experience quite a few miracles from God this past week. One of them was that within about 10 minutes after her death the sores on her feet were beginning to look like brand new baby feet after so long of being so bad. I would not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes the extreme difference in her feet. It was amazing!!! I am so sad, but now I know Mother is at peace, healed, and finally able to walk, and she is with Jesus! Although I will miss her for the rest of my life, by the grace of God, I was much stronger, calm, and peaceful, than I thought I would be through all this. Even so, I was shocked when my dad called me the "Rock" probably because of your prayers. On Saturday both the funeral and graveside service were very beautiful. Sunday morning the immediate family met at the gravesite and joined hands in a circle for prayer before me and my husband and my childrens families came back to Virginia.

Marriage Notes for CYNTHIA HAM and CHARLES SMITHDEAL:

They got married during the mid-winter semester break from college and had just finished exams from the first semester. She wore her evening gown that she had worn to the High School Junior-Senior Prom and her Senior Piano Recital. Her mother sewed long lace sleeves to the dress, matching the lace as well as possible, to give it more of an appearance of a wedding gown than a sleeveless prom dress. It was made of podisua satin with an wide fitted satin waist and large pleats in the floor length skirt. Above the wide empire waist was an attached lace over bodice.

It snowed the day they got married, about 4-5 inches. Some of the wedding party and other guests were not able to come that day because of the weather. They borrowed his dad's car, because neither had a car of their own. After the wedding at the First Baptist Church in Mooresville, North Carolina, they first went to his sister's (Aileen) house to change clothes. Then they drove to Statesville, North Carolina to their 2 room garage apartment, that they lived in for the next couple months until he graduated from Mitchell College. When they arrived at the apartment, all the lights were out. The landlord, who lived in the main house came over with candles and talked and talked for hours. He finally left about two o'clock that night. You could see the sky where the roof didn't quite meet the walls and some tiles were missing in the bathroom to reveal a "dirt" floor.

He worked at Harris Teeter Super Market part-time. She worked at a drug store as a soda jerk for a couple months, then went to work at Beaunit as a quality control inspector until he got a job with Woolworths and was transferred to Gastonia, North Carolina. That first summer after they married, they went to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina for a couple of days and stayed at the Cottonwood Motel. That was really their first real honeymoon.

Marriage Notes for EMILY SMITHDEAL and SETH SMITH:

Ref #1134; Emily's mother made the bridal gown of satin and venetian lace appliques and also made the bridal veil of two layers of the finest tulle with zigzag edging. The headpiece was made by overlaying a headband with matching satin and matching pieces of the venetian lace used on the dress with adding pearls and tiny ribbon. The tulle was tightly gathered and attached to the back of the headpiece. Her mother also made Aunt Julia's bridesmaid dress, and her mother of the bride dress. The bridesmaid's dresses and her mother's skirt was of an apricot colored polyester satin. Her grandmother, Olena Ham, made the flower-girl dress for her cousin, Jenny Perry. The wedding cake came from Ukrop's. Caston's photographed the wedding. Her mother organized and planned the reception after the wedding at the church. Ladies at the church helped serve and clean-up afterwards. After her mother carefully making a notebook of do-not-forget lists, the one thing that was forgotten was her mother's mother of the bride dress. Her daddy had to drive back home to get it about just an hour before the wedding.

Guests from North Carolina on the brides side included:

Grandparents: Leonard & Olena Ham, and Rachel Smithdeal

Aunts & Uncles: Julia Perry, Aileen Waugh, Barbara & Pressley Barnett
Cousins: Jenny Perry
Great Aunt (Granddaddy Leonard Ham's sister): Daisy Azars

After the wedding, supper for the Smithdeal's out of town guests and family was barbeque from Brock's Barbeque with all the fixings from Brock's at the home of the Smithdeals. The Smith family provided dinner for their out of town guests and family at their home.

The couple was given from the bride's parents as a wedding present, a night at the Brandermill Inn with Breakfast in the room. So, that's where they spent their honeymoon night. It was a very pretty, nice place overlooking the Swift Creek Reservoir between Brandermill and Woodlake in Midlothian, Virginia.
