He is buried in the cemetery on the old home plantation, Ham's Grove, Statesville, NC.

"It is said that Henry was in love with Sally Edwards' (his brother Miles' wife) crippled sister. However, when Henry was only about 21 years old, he went one day to help his brother-in-law Tyra Howell, work in the wheat field at Tyra's farm. Henry was just recovering from the measles. He got too hot working in the field (probably a heat stroke) and that combined with his weakened condition from the measles, affected his brain. He never recovered. For most of the remainder of his life he was in the State Mental Hospital in Morgantown, NC. "

"Mr. Jim Ham, the plumber, had an experience one day recently that gave him a shock he will not soon get over. He had planned to go to Concord to get a truck and his 10-year old son Robert begged his father to let him go with him and drive the truck back home. Mr. Ham told him he could not do so -- that he was entirely too young and would not be permitted to drive a car or truck. He stepped in his sedan and drove to the Birdsall-Morrow garage, where he had arranged to secure the service of a mechanic in bringing back the truck, and when he stepped from his car his little 3-year-old son Charlie caught him by the leg of his pants and looking up, said: "I doin' wit' you to Concord." Mr. Ham turned all colors and felt faint at heart. The child had crawled on the fender of the car and held fast to that part of the machine while it came from the Ham home through town, a distance of a mile. The child hanging on to the fender had been seen by several people, but no alarm was given to the father of the perilous riding place of the juvenile."

her full given name. She went by her middle name all her life.

Now I wish that I had kept dresses my mother had made. She was always sewing and made beautiful dresses and all kinds of clothes for me and everybody in the family. Mom would see a dress in a store window and come home and make a dress that looked just like the one in the store. She didnt even have to have a pattern to go by. Im still amazed just to think about it. At least I have all the afghans and hook-latch rugs that she and my grandmother made for me. They are beautiful.

She died of congestive heart failure. My mom passed away peacefully on Thursday morning at 9:50 AM, July 14, 2005. I was very blessed to be sitting right beside her bed holding her hand when she passed. After being bedridden since February, 2005 and about 20 hours of my mom being in a coma-type sleep, she opened up her eyes and I said "Good morning, Mother. Im not on the phone today. Im right here." She smiled. By that time, my dad was right there. It seemed like she was mouthing the words, "I love you" and then she passed away. It was a strange thing that was about the time I had been calling her about every day for the past year. At that exact same time, my cousin got a sudden urge to go pray, and without knowing why, she did. Also at the same time, a friend of mine and my daughter were on the phone, agreeing about the need for prayer at that particular time. I was able to experience quite a few miracles from God this past week. One of them was that within about 10 minutes after her death the sores on her feet were beginning to look like brand new baby feet after so long of being so bad. I would not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes the extreme difference in her feet. It was amazing!!! I am so sad, but now I know Mother is at peace, healed, and finally able to walk, and she is with Jesus! Although I will miss her for the rest of my life, by the grace of God, I was much stronger, calm, and peaceful, than I thought I would be through all this. Even so, I was shocked when my dad called me the "Rock" probably because of your prayers. On Saturday both the funeral and graveside service were very beautiful. Sunday morning the immediate family met at the gravesite and joined hands in a circle for prayer before me and my husband and my childrens families came back to Virginia.

At the end all of her organs were shutting down and her congestive heart failure was so bad that she couldn't even swallow water very well. She had to have water given to her by a medicine dropper. She couldn't have any food of any kind because she would have choked to death on it and we were told that that would be a horrible death. As it was she passed away peacefully after a long coma-like sleep. She opened her eyes up at the very last. I was sitting beside her bed holding her hand.
