"Mr. Arthurs, was 19 when he came to this county, where he has been identified with its development and general well-being. The journey was made hither in the manner common in those days, with horses and oxen, and the domestic affairs were managed while the party were en route as nearly as possible as in the home they had left. Mr. Arthurs lived with his brother-in-law for a few months after reaching Illinois, and meanwhile bought the land included in the farm which he now owns. He erected a log house and split clapboards for the roof and puncheons for the floor. The place now presents a modernized appearance, as the cabin of that early day has given place to farm-structures that are in every way suitable to the change in the circumstances of the proprietor and to the times.

From Mooresville, take Route 21 to Oswalt (maybe 6-8 miles). There is nothing at Oswalt but a sign and an old store just past where you turn right. This is called Houston Road. Follow this road until it dead-ends. Turn left. The church is about 1-2 miles on the right. You go down a hill and up the hill. The church and cemetery are just as you come up the hill. It is a lovely country church. If you go into the church, the stained glass over the door was dedicated to William Smith Arthurs.

"Mr. Jim Ham, the plumber, had an experience one day recently that gave him a shock he will not soon get over. He had planned to go to Concord to get a truck and his 10-year old son Robert begged his father to let him go with him and drive the truck back home. Mr. Ham told him he could not do so -- that he was entirely too young and would not be permitted to drive a car or truck. He stepped in his sedan and drove to the Birdsall-Morrow garage, where he had arranged to secure the service of a mechanic in bringing back the truck, and when he stepped from his car his little 3-year-old son Charlie caught him by the leg of his pants and looking up, said: "I doin' wit' you to Concord." Mr. Ham turned all colors and felt faint at heart. The child had crawled on the fender of the car and held fast to that part of the machine while it came from the Ham home through town, a distance of a mile. The child hanging on to the fender had been seen by several people, but no alarm was given to the father of the perilous riding place of the juvenile."

her full given name. She went by her middle name all her life.

Now I wish that I had kept dresses my mother had made. She was always sewing and made beautiful dresses and all kinds of clothes for me and everybody in the family. Mom would see a dress in a store window and come home and make a dress that looked just like the one in the store. She didnt even have to have a pattern to go by. Im still amazed just to think about it. At least I have all the afghans and hook-latch rugs that she and my grandmother made for me. They are beautiful.

She died of congestive heart failure. My mom passed away peacefully on Thursday morning at 9:50 AM, July 14, 2005. I was very blessed to be sitting right beside her bed holding her hand when she passed. After being bedridden since February, 2005 and about 20 hours of my mom being in a coma-type sleep, she opened up her eyes and I said "Good morning, Mother. Im not on the phone today. Im right here." She smiled. By that time, my dad was right there. It seemed like she was mouthing the words, "I love you" and then she passed away. It was a strange thing that was about the time I had been calling her about every day for the past year. At that exact same time, my cousin got a sudden urge to go pray, and without knowing why, she did. Also at the same time, a friend of mine and my daughter were on the phone, agreeing about the need for prayer at that particular time. I was able to experience quite a few miracles from God this past week. One of them was that within about 10 minutes after her death the sores on her feet were beginning to look like brand new baby feet after so long of being so bad. I would not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes the extreme difference in her feet. It was amazing!!! I am so sad, but now I know Mother is at peace, healed, and finally able to walk, and she is with Jesus! Although I will miss her for the rest of my life, by the grace of God, I was much stronger, calm, and peaceful, than I thought I would be through all this. Even so, I was shocked when my dad called me the "Rock" probably because of your prayers. On Saturday both the funeral and graveside service were very beautiful. Sunday morning the immediate family met at the gravesite and joined hands in a circle for prayer before me and my husband and my childrens families came back to Virginia.

Medical Information: Heart Attack, Stints in arteries, high blood pressure, low-grade diabetes, congestive heart failure, arthritis, one leg bent out at the knee, poor circulation in her legs, had to have the middle toe removed on both feet because of sores on her feet that wouldn't heal because of poor circulation. At the end all of her organs were shutting down and her congestive heart failure was so bad that she couldn't even swallow water very well. She had to have water given to her by a medicine dropper. She couldn't have any food of any kind because she would have choked to death on it and we were told that that would be a horrible death. As it was she passed away peacefully after a long coma-like sleep. She opened her eyes up at the very last. I was sitting beside her bed holding her hand. I said, "Good morning, Mother"; After that she smiled and she was gone.

Marriage Notes for CYNTHIA HAM and CHARLES SMITHDEAL:

They got married during the mid-winter semester break from college and had just finished exams from the first semester. She wore her evening gown that she had worn to the High School Junior-Senior Prom and her Senior Piano Recital. Her mother sewed long lace sleeves to the dress, matching the lace as well as possible, to give it more of an appearance of a wedding gown than a sleeveless prom dress. It was made of podisua satin with an wide fitted satin waist and large pleats in the floor length skirt. Above the wide empire waist was an attached lace over bodice.

It snowed the day they got married, about 4-5 inches. Some of the wedding party and other guests were not able to come that day because of the weather. They borrowed his dad's car, because neither had a car of their own. After the wedding at the First Baptist Church in Mooresville, North Carolina, they first went to his sister's (Aileen) house to change clothes. Then they drove to Statesville, North Carolina to their 2 room garage apartment, that they lived in for the next couple months until he graduated from Mitchell College. When they arrived at the apartment, all the lights were out. The landlord, who lived in the main house came over with candles and talked and talked for hours. He finally left about two o'clock that night. You could see the sky where the roof didn't quite meet the walls and some tiles were missing in the bathroom to reveal a "dirt" floor.

He worked at Harris Teeter Super Market part-time. She worked at a drug store as a soda jerk for a couple months, then went to work at Beaunit as a quality control inspector until he got a job with Woolworths and was transferred to Gastonia, North Carolina. That first summer after they married, they went to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina for a couple of days and stayed at the Cottonwood Motel. That was really their first real honeymoon.

Marriage Notes for EMILY SMITHDEAL and SETH SMITH:

Ref #1134; Emily's mother made the bridal gown of satin and venetian lace appliques and also made the bridal veil of two layers of the finest tulle with zigzag edging. The headpiece was made by overlaying a headband with matching satin and matching pieces of the venetian lace used on the dress with adding pearls and tiny ribbon. The tulle was tightly gathered and attached to the back of the headpiece. Her mother also made Aunt Julia's bridesmaid dress, and her mother of the bride dress. The bridesmaid's dresses and her mother's skirt was of an apricot colored polyester satin. Her grandmother, Olena Ham, made the flower-girl dress for her cousin, Jenny Perry. The wedding cake came from Ukrop's. Caston's photographed the wedding. Her mother organized and planned the reception after the wedding at the church. Ladies at the church helped serve and clean-up afterwards. After her mother carefully making a notebook of do-not-forget lists, the one thing that was forgotten was her mother's mother of the bride dress. Her daddy had to drive back home to get it about just an hour before the wedding.

Guests from North Carolina on the brides side included:
Grandparents: Leonard & Olena Ham, and Rachel Smithdeal
Aunts & Uncles: Julia Perry, Aileen Waugh, Barbara & Pressley Barnett
Cousins: Jenny Perry
Great Aunt (Granddaddy Leonard Ham's sister): Daisy Azars

After the wedding, supper for the Smithdeal's out of town guests and family was barbeque from Brock's Barbeque with all the fixings from Brock's at the home of the Smithdeals. The Smith family provided dinner for their out of town guests and family at their home.

The couple was given from the bride's parents as a wedding present, a night at the Brandermill Inn with Breakfast in the room. So, that's where they spent their honeymoon night. It was a very pretty, nice place overlooking the Swift Creek Reservoir between Brandermill and Woodlake in Midlothian, Virginia.
