

The Shofar Award

of the National Jewish Committee on Scouting

The Award

The National Jewish Committee on Scouting established the Shofar Award to recognize outstanding service by adults in the promotion of Scouting among Jewish youth. Just as the Shofar (Ram's Horn) calls people to the service of God, so the Shofar Award is a recognition of the individual who has answered the call to serve Jewish youth in Scouting.

Eligibility Guidelines

A Shofar recipient should:

1. Promote the use of Scouting in synagogues, Jewish Community Centers, and other Jewish institutions.
2. Encourage Jewish youth to join the Boy Scouts of America as Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Varsity Scouts, and Venturers.
3. Recruit Jewish leaders on unit, district, and council levels.
4. Encourage and assist Scouts in earning the Maccabee, Aleph, Ner Tamid, and Etz Chaim emblems.
5. Promote religious observance on camping trips and at camporees, summer camp, Scout Sabbath, and other functions.
6. Exemplify religious convictions by personal participation in the ideals of Jewish life.

Notice

In the Greater Cleveland Council, all Shofar Award nominations are reviewed by a subcommittee of the Cleveland Jewish Committee on Scouting. Please forward the nomination including the letter of recommendation mentioned in item 2 in the Nomination Procedure to:

Stuart L. Woldman, Awards Chairman
Cleveland Jewish Committee on Scouting
4070 Eastway Road
South Euclid, OH 44121
(216) 381-3668

The Awards Subcommittee will review the nomination.

Neither the nominee nor any members of the nominee's family should be aware of the nomination, until it has been approved by the awards subcommittee.

If it is approved, they will obtain the Council's certification, and order the award. The Committee absorbs the cost of the award.

Typically the Shofar Award is presented at the Jewish Committee on Scouting's annual Scout Shabbat service.

You and the nominee's family will be notified if the nomination has been approved, so that arrangements can be made to have the nominee present to receive the emblem.
