

Putting も in Its Proper Place / Using も Correctly

Read and Think:

One of your classmates tried to say in Japanese:

"My hair is black. My hair is long too."

The student wrote:

私はかみが黒いです。かみもながいです。

Is this correct or not? _____ Why or why not? (explain using information from class)

Think and Write:

Using today's Japanese lesson and everything else you know, express the sentences below in Japanese.

NOTE: There is one sentence that we haven't learned how to express. Write "Can't express" on the line.

1. My hair is long. And, my legs are long. _____

2. My hair is long. My legs are long, too. _____

3. My hair is long. And, my hair is black. _____

4. My hair is long. My hair is black, too. _____

5. Kiran drinks water. Kulsuma drinks water, too. _____

6. Kulsuma drinks juice. Kulsuma drinks water, too. _____

Is the sentence "Kulsuma drinks water, too." the same both times?

Why or why not? (explain using information from class)
